

A Brief History of Plymouth Hockey Club

1985 Plymouth Hockey Club accepted of boys from of 11-14 years; this was later increased to include boys between from of 6-16 years.

Chairman: Jack Barrow

Head Coach: Dave Mardon.

1989 The club was formally recognised as a section of Plymouth Hockey Club assuming the title of Plymouth Junior Hockey Club. Later the same year girls were admitted as members.

Chairman: Jack Barrow.

1995 Plymouth Junior Hockey Club became an independent club.

Chairman: Jack Barrow.

1997 Began training at the College of St Mark and St John (Marjons), Derriford.

Chairman: Dave Uden

Head Coach: Jan Fursier.

2005 Began a trial affiliation with Plymouth Marjon Hockey Club and informally adopted the title "Plymouth Marjon Junior Hockey Club".

Chairman: Jamie Oxley

Head Coach: Mike Timson.

2006 Amalgamation with Plymouth Marjon Hockey Club rejected at AGM.

Chairman: Jamie Oxley / Rob White

Head Coach: Mike Timson.

2008 Plymouth Hockey Club re-asserted its independence and relocated to Manadon.

Chairman: Rob White

Head Coach: Mike Timson.

2009 Celebrated 25th Anniversary.

2011 Awarded "Clubmark" (Safeguarding accreditation).

